All-Steinway School Celebration

A special All-Steinway School Celebration is scheduled for Friday, May 20 at 7:30 pm in the Old Administration Building Auditorium to celebrate the All-Steinway School designation for Fresno City College. At the free event, Steinway's New York Senior District Manager, Bob Snyder will present an All-Steinway School plaque to Fresno City College to recognize this milestone. The event will also feature a short concert by Steinway artist, Ksenia Nosikova, a world renown concert pianist.

Nosikova will also teach a Master Class to FCC music students on Friday at 11:00 a.m. in the Recital Hall (MS 132).

New Wrinkles is Back!

Summertime and the living is...all about New Wrinkles! After a COVID hiatus, the popular senior revue is back. Since 1988, New Wrinkles has been entertaining thousands in the Central Valley with their unique blend of music, dance, comedy, and more – all performed by a talented volunteer cast aged 55 and older. From its earliest beginnings, the New Wrinkles Company has always been a multifaceted family of seniors experiencing the energetic camaraderie involved in creating entertainment excellence.

New Wrinkles 2022 Summer Nights opens with a fundraising performance on Thursday, June 2 at 7:30 p.m. Tickets are $25. All other performances are $5 per ticket on June 3, 4, 10 at 7:30 p.m. and June 5, 11, 12 at 2:00 p.m. Tickets are now available for purchase on Eventbrite.

Nursing Award

Congratulations to Keisha Lewis Nesbitt, FCC's director of nursing, for being recognized by the Central San Joaquin Valley Nursing Leadership Coalition. Keisha was awarded RN of the Year in the Innovation in Professional Nursing category at the 36th Annual RN of the Year

Awards on May 5. According to the Coalition website, this award “is given to recognize, document and communicate innovations in the delivery of patient care.”

Keisha, who started as our director of nursing last summer, has been an RN for 25 years. She is the author of the Discover the World of Nursing children’s book series and helped develop education gaming tools to promote careers in nursing.

Also, at the dinner, counselor Gerri Santos was given the “Friend of Nursing” Award for her “impactful work for Nursing, specifically with African American students” and for being a strong advocate for students pursuing STEM careers, particularly nursing.

Ram Pantry

Students will find no interruption of services in the Ram Pantry when the Summer semester begins on Monday. According to new Ram Pantry coordinator, Paul Torres, the Ram Pantry will continue serving students throughout the summer. The only change is that instead of distributing goods on the Bookstore patio, operations will move back indoors.

The days and hours will remain the same. They are Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday from 9:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.
